Do you have something to say?
Would you like to contribute to this web site?

We would like to find people who:

- Are interested in improving the fairness of the taxation system
- Developing social justice
- Tackling poverty
- Spotting our typos
- Helping us to improve this web site

If you are interested this is what to do:
1. Register with the web site
2. Contact the secretary Henry Law and apply to become an "Author"

We will be delighted to hear what you have to say, and thankful for your contribution towards our work.
