

Mortgages - a double injustice

Saturday, 29 October 2011 02:16

The mortgage is the device by which banks create money in return for the pledge of land rent privatised by a home buyer. Mortgages are a double injustice leading to poverty, financial instability and unaffordable housing.